

CONFERENCE VENUE, TRAVEL INFORMATION

DANUBIUS HOTEL FLAMENCO

Tas vezér utca 3-7.

1133, Budapest

How to travel in Budapest?

The public transportation of the city is quite good.

If you want to use public transportation during your visit you have different options (different tickets) which you can find on www.bkv.hu. On this site you can find all the bus, tram, metro, trolley, etc. lines and schedules information too.

You must buy your ticket before your journey and validate it in the ticket stamp machine on the bus and tram, or in the case of the Metro at machines before entering the platform. Tickets are best bought at Metro stations as there are more ticket choices. But, tickets can also be bought at many tobacconists. Single tickets are valid for bus, tram and metro for 1 uninterrupted trip. (These tickets are not valid on night buses!)

For fares and ticket options see: <http://www.bkv.hu/english/jegyinfo/fares.html>

There are a lot of taxi companies in Budapest. You can find information about them on the internet or you can ask one of the hostesses at the conference.

You may hail taxis in the street, but will probably be cheaper to order a taxi by telephone.
